Back-To-Work Series Offered By Altrusans

Are you thinking of getting a job?

Each year, more and more women rejoin the nation's work force.

The causes are many—perhaps the children are all in school, perhaps the family needs more income, maybe you've just gotten tired of bridge, or maybe you'd like a change from housework.

Whatever the reason, lots of Tucson women are "going back to work."

The Altrusa Club of Tucson, a classified service club for executive women, will sponsor a series of four meetings to help women make the transition from home to office more easily.

They will be held at the YWCA at 7:30 p.m. Apr. 30, May 5, May 7 and May 11. Anyone interested is welcome to attend, and there is no charge.

Chairman of the project is Martha Nowels, cochairman of the Club's Vocational Information Committee.

Altrusa members will present information on problems of budgeting, refresher courses, grooming, psychological adjustments, job interviews and home management.

Miss Mary Anne Reimann is Miss Nowels' cochairman. Other committee members are Miss June Gibbs, Dr. Esther Closson, Mrs. Pearl Coulter, Mrs. Emily Quinn, Mrs. Herbert F. Krucker, Mrs. William Milburn, Miss Elizabeth Howsare, Mrs. Mary Simonson and Mrs. Georges De Meester.
