

UA's Top Ten All From Arizona

All of the top 10 leaders of the 1967 class at the University of Arizona are Arizonans, seven women from Tucson and three men from Phoenix.

The Tucsonians with their grade averages are:

Jane M. Orient, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William L. Orient, 5171 E. Peach St., B. A. in chemistry and B. S. in mathematics, 1.0330.

Mrs. Carol Foulds Goss, 8876 McClellan St., B. A. in government, 1.0353.

Mrs. Louise Wood Dengler, 3255 Camino Campestre, B. A. in government, 1.0484.

Ronilyn McDonald, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. James E. McDonald, 3461 E. Third St., B. A. in psychology, 1.0575.

Susan R. Jacobson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Seymour S. Jacobson, 2621 San Carlos Place, B. A. in psychology, 1.0714.

Mary S. Neff, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard C. Neff, 4833 E. Scarlett St., B. A. in German and French, 1.0763.

Susan M. Woods, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl L. Woods, 8631 E. Shiloh St., B. A. in English and Russian, 1.0800.

The men from Phoenix are:

Lowell W. Rogers, B. A. in chemistry, 1.0389.

George C. Butte, B. A. in English, 1.0476.

William J. Moore, B. S. in agricultural chemistry and soils, 1.0952.