

Atomic Arms Race Panel Set At Center

A taped address on "The Nuclear Arms Race—Sanity and Survival" will be presented at 8:15 p.m. Sunday by the Fireside Club at the Jewish Community Center, 102 N. Plumer Ave.

A panel discussion will follow the taped address by Dr. Jerome D. Frank, psychiatrist, Johns Hopkins University.

Members of the panel will be Dr. Neal D. Houghton, professor of government, University of Arizona; Dr. James E. McDonald, professor of meteorology, University of Arizona; Dr. Boris Zemsky, Tucson Psychiatrist; and James E. Officer, instructor in sociology, University of Arizona, acting as moderator.

In the taped address, Frank points out parallels between the behavior of nations today and that of mental patients, developing this in the social and psychiatric implications of the nuclear arms race.

The program is open to the public without charge.
