

FACULTY MEMBERS SIGN STATEMENT

121 At UA Praise Peace Efforts

A total of 121 University of Arizona faculty members have signed a statement to President Johnson praising him for the peace offensive now under way.

The statement reads:

"We heartily endorse your initiative in seeking active negotiations to end the Viet Nam conflict.

"We hope that neither domestic political pressure nor temporary diplomatic reversals will deter you from maintaining persistent, patient efforts to resolve the conflict at the conference table."

Many of the persons signing the statement today also were among 54 UA faculty members who signed an ad in the campus newspaper, the Arizona Wildcat, in December calling for the United States to "actively seek negotiations" and expressing fear about the escalation of the war.

What's New? Oh, A Horse In The Pool

MUTTONTOWN, N.Y. — UPI

— Three horses being boarded at a nearby stable broke loose and wandered onto the estate of architect Leverett Miller.

One of them fell into Miller's partially filled swimming pool and drowned. The neighing of the other horses brought the estate caretaker who found the drowned horse, police said.

Swim Classes Begin Monday

New courses in competitive swimming, diving, and pre-swim team training for boys and girls will begin Monday at the Central YMCA, 516 N. 5th Ave.

The courses will be instructional only, with no swimming team affiliations. Information on class times and registration may be obtained by contacting the Central YMCA.
